Designated Offerings Policy

Spending of money is confined to programs and projects approved through the annual budget or by the Directors from time to time. Each restricted offering, designated towards an approved program or project, will be used as designated, with the understanding that when the need for such a program or project has been met, or cannot be completed for any reason determined by the Directors, the remaining restricted offerings designated for such a program or project will be used where needed most.

Offering Envelopes

The Canadian government encourages charity work by allowing people to reduce their Income Taxes by an amount dependent on their total gifts to charities each year. To support a claim, charities issue receipts at the end of the year for the total received from each person. In order to do this, Guelph Bible Chapel uses offering envelopes identified by number only. If you would like a box of envelopes, please speak to Elaine Finlay (519-822-7290.) If you would like more information on how the system works, please contact the Chapel Treasurer, Ken Finlay (519-822-2299)

Workbook $25.00. Co-ed study led by Ann Clark - 13 weeks

Jeremiah, although a timid and melancholy temperament which caused him to be called "the weeping prophet", lived a life of conflict because of his predictions of judgment upon the sins of the people. He was threatened, tried for his life, put in stocks, forced to flee from Jehoiakim, publicly humiliated by a false prophet, and thrown into a pit. His ministry spanned 5 decades and took place during the reigns of Judah's final 5 kings.

How might Jeremiah's call to listen to God's Word and his warnings of impending judgment upon Judah for their sins be applicable to us today? How can heeding Jeremiah's message bring healing and hope to us all? Join us and find out!

Workbook $25.00. - 9 week study led by Donna Chapman

Are you preoccupied with the "What ifs" and worst-case scenarios? Unrelenting doubts and fears can be paralyzing! Worry can interfere with your daily life and ruin your relationships. We may dignify worry by calling it by some other name – concern, burden, a cross to bear – but Jesus calls it sinful. God feeds the birds and clothes the lilies and He will clothe and feed us. However it is our "little faith" that hinders Him from working in our lives.

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus tells His followers – then and now – "do not be worried." That seems impossible considering He also says, "In this world you will have tribulation" but there has to be a way to do what He says in spite of the realities of life. There is! The fact that Jesus Himself commanded it means it is possible.

If you struggle with worries and wish you didn't, join Jan Silvi-ous and Pam Gillaspie – two recovering worriers – for an eight-week study that will lead you through Scripture and help you learn how to walk in God's truth and to trust Him, eliminating your need to worry! He has great blessings for us if only we will trust Him.
