

The King's Business

Offering Envelopes

The Canadian government encourages charity work by allowing people to reduce their Income Taxes by an amount dependent on their total gifts to charities each year. To support a claim, charities issue receipts at the end of the year for the total received from each person. In order to do this, Guelph Bible Chapel uses offering envelopes identified by number only. If you would like a box of envelopes, please speak to Elaine Finlay (519-822-7290.) If you would like more information on how the system works, please contact the Chapel Treasurer, Ken Finlay (519-822-2299)

Pre Authorized Donations

As an offering option, instead of placing donations on the offering plate, members of Guelph Bible Chapel may now authorize the Chapel to withdraw donations directly from their bank accounts. This saves having to assemble cash or write a cheque for the offering plate. It also facilitates continuous donations even when a member is out of town. Withdrawals, at least initially, will be on the Monday immediately following the first Sunday of the month. To sign up for this programme, please speak to Ken Finlay, (treasurer) or Elaine Finlay (Chapel Secretary.) Please note: to set up, you will need to provide a void cheque or your banking information

You Have Forsaken Me - Repent and Return

A Precept Upon Precept Inductive study

Thursdays, 9:30 a.m. or 7:00 p.m., starting September 12th

Includes DVD teaching by David Arthur

Workbook $25.00. Co-ed study led by Ann Clark - 13 weeks

Jeremiah, although a timid and melancholy temperament which caused him to be called "the weeping prophet", lived a life of conflict because of his predictions of judgment upon the sins of the people. He was threatened, tried for his life, put in stocks, forced to flee from Jehoiakim, publicly humiliated by a false prophet, and thrown into a pit. His ministry spanned 5 decades and took place during the reigns of Judah's final 5 kings.

How might Jeremiah's call to listen to God's Word and his warnings of impending judgment upon Judah for their sins be applicable to us today? How can heeding Jeremiah's message bring healing and hope to us all? Join us and find out!

No Worries - Learning To Trust Our Sovereign God

An inductive study from the Sweeter Than Chocolate Series

Upcoming Events

Wednesdays, 9:30 a.m., starting September 18th

Thursdays, 9:30 a.m. starting September 19th

Includes DVD teaching with Pam Gillaspie and Jan Silvius

Workbook $25.00. - 9 week study led by Donna Chapman

Are you preoccupied with the "What ifs" and worst-case scenarios? Unrelenting doubts and fears can be paralyzing! Worry can interfere with your daily life and ruin your relationships. We may dignify worry by calling it by some other name – concern, burden, a cross to bear – but Jesus calls it sinful. God feeds the birds and clothes the lilies and He will clothe and feed us. However it is our "little faith" that hinders Him from working in our lives.

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus tells His followers – then and now – "do not be worried." That seems impossible considering He also says, "In this world you will have tribulation" but there has to be a way to do what He says in spite of the realities of life. There is! The fact that Jesus Himself commanded it means it is possible.

If you struggle with worries and wish you didn't, join Jan Silvius and Pam Gillaspie – two recovering worriers – for an eight-week study that will lead you through Scripture and help you learn how to walk in God's truth and to trust Him, eliminating your need to worry! He has great blessings for us if only we will trust Him.
